1. In order for an officer to be considered for impeachment he or she must be one or more of the following:
   A. Inactive in the club.
   B. Failing to perform duties.
   C. Acted in such a way that is detrimental to the UB Running Club.
   D. Inappropriate behavior as deemed by University at Buffalo.
2. A member or an officer must form a petition list with at least 50% of club members. 50% of active voting members and all other officers must vote in order for a removal to take place.
3. If an officer is removed at a time that is not appropriate to have an election the President or Vice-President can appoint a member of the club to that position.
4. If the officers are not able to agree on a candidate to nominate, an election will be held to choose between the candidates. The nominee receiving the most votes from active club members will be appointed to the position.
5. If impeachment has taken place in the club, the Sports Council Coordinator will be notified as well as proper channels within the Student Association.

E. Vacancies and Resignations

1. An officer of the Running Club may choose to resign at any given time throughout the academic year for reasons including but not limited to: early graduation, study abroad, family issues, college transfer, etc.

2. If an officer plans on resigning it is strongly recommended that they provide the other officers with at least 2 weeks of prior notice.

3. In the case that an officer plans on resigning, the e-board will nominate a candidate to fill his or her position. The active club members will then vote on the new candidate as outlined in the election section.

4. If the officers are not able to agree on a candidate to nominate, an election will be held to choose between the candidates. The nominee receiving the most votes from active club members will be appointed to the position.

5. If there is an officer position that is left vacant after elections, the position may be filled by an active member of the club who volunteers. For them to be awarded this position, they must receive at least a 50% vote from active members in the club.

Article VII. Amendments

A. Officers and active club members can propose an amendment at a general body meeting.

B. Amendments to this Constitution and by-laws may not violate any Student Association, University at Buffalo, Student Mandatory Activity Fee Guidelines, New York State, or Federal rules, regulations or laws.

C. A majority of active club members must vote on the amendment at the next general meeting in order for an amendment to be added to the UB Running Club Constitution. If it is decided that the amendment must be reviewed and understood further at the first officer's meeting, the officers can delay the vote until the following week's meeting. While the officers can propose and advertise an amendment, the decision rests on a majority vote from active club members.

D. Once passed amendments and an updated Constitution must be turned into the Student Association Office and the Council Coordinator for review and approval.

E. If approval by the parties listed above is obtained, the general body of the club will be notified of the new amendments, and the amendment will be effective immediately.
